Basic Introduction to Numerology

Today, you will learn how to discover the following numbers.

Your destiny number from your date of birth.

Your personality number from your name.

Your expression number from the consonants in your name.

Your heart number from the vowels in your name.

Numerology is an ancient art based on numbers. Pythagoras, the great mathematician, instigated the numerology that we practice today. He believed that numbers rule everything in the world and that once we can discover the numerical value of something, we can define it accordingly.

Numerology is a marvellous tool for discovering the hidden meanings of your name and date of birth, which give your personality and destiny numbers, respectively. You can also use it to gain insight into the people you know.

You can use numerology to select a baby's name, house, company, car, or anything else valuable to you.

Ideally, an individual's destiny and personality numbers should be odd or even to allow the energies to flow more harmoniously.

Odd numbers are powerful and extrovert and have traditionally been called masculine. Even numbers are gentler and introverted and have usually been called feminine. This does not mean that men can only have masculine numbers and women only feminine. However, you will find that men who have only feminine numbers in their name and birth date have softer personalities than men with nothing but masculine numbers.

Eleven numbers are used in numerology – one to nine, plus eleven and twenty-two. The digits of any other numbers are added together until you arrive at one of the eleven numbers. For example, fifty-seven is reduced by adding five and seven together to make twelve, then adding one and two together to make three. The only two-digit numbers not added together are eleven and twenty-two, known as the master numbers. You do not reduce it further when you arrive at one of these.

Master numbers are powerful purely because they break the usual numerology rule of reducing numbers to single digits. They carry unique qualities and often denote people who stand out from the crowd in some way but, in themselves, are no better or worse than any other number.

The Practice of Numerology for Business Involves Determining the Most Suitable Name for a Company

Numerology is all about the vibrations and energies reflected by the numbers. Like most things, the numbers are connected, from birth date to name and everything. There's a connection between everything. As astrology is based on sun signs, numerology is based on the numbers related to our reputation and birth date.

Many have heard by now that people are calculating their personal year numbers. But what is that, and why is it so special?

In numerology, your personal year number tells you what cycle you are in that year. There is a life cycle of nine (with master number 11

That is, our lives go through these nine phases consistently. The personal year number lets you know what cycle you are in and what that means for you.

Your personal year number is a way of preparing you for the energies you will be facing.

The business numerology name can have a significant impact on your business. It helps determine many things, from the challenges your business might face to losses. The meaning of numbers in business name numerology includes.

In numerology, choosing a business name becomes extremely important. Every entrepreneur selects the best name for their business to reflect their brand.

Business name numerology refers to assigning unique numbers to businesses that align with the vibrations and contribute to positive organisational changes. This helps to determine the best name for the company and the corporate organisation. However, every business is different and has different needs.

A business name numerology will determine whether your business will go uphill or downhill.

Why Is Numerology for Business Important? Money, you, me, and everyone else all have energy vibrations, just like everything else. Using the same rules, even the names we use for each other have beats.

Everything sends out vibrations, whether it's your name, your child's name, or the name of your business. These vibrations directly affect the skills, abilities, nature, behaviour, and success or failure of the person with that name. These vibrations can change our future overall.

From the point of view of numerology, everything around us is made up of numbers. Over time, people have produced different ways to determine how names affect Energy and attract other energy vibrations. Starting a business is pretty straightforward, but it takes a lot of work to keep it going well. Before investing a lot of money into our company, you must check everything. It would help if you immediately found a good name for our business.

Do we get affected by numbers?

We are interested in a few numbers. We may not know why, but we like some numbers better than others; something about us must make us like some people and hate others. Even though all numbers are significant, some help us more than others.

How do you calculate the numerology number of your business?

You can use any numerology calculator to find whether the name suits your business.

Calculating business name numerology is easy, even if you're doing it for the first time.

There are several online numerology calculators for a business that can make things easy for you.

The alphabet translates to numbers you can use to calculate for your business. This includes.

Calculating Your Business Name Number

This number is derived from the letters in the name by which your business is usually known. If you have more than one name, add that up as well. If you have more than one name or a long name, adding the numbers of all of it and then a part of it may help you see which is the more positive and if you want to add or remove any part of the name you had initially chosen. Or help you to find a name if you need more clarification.

NUMBER / LETTER CALCULATOR.

First, you need to convert the letters in your name into numbers using the following table.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I
J	K	L	M	N	O	P	Q	R
S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z

When working out the business number of the name you have chosen or want to try to work with, you add up as follows. Firstly, a word with no vowels but containing a Y, always count the Y as a vowel. Some numerologists always calculate a Y as a vowel.

Write down the name, and then write the numerical values of the vowels above the title and those of the consonants below the title.

EXAMPLE -

	K	A	Y	B	E
				S	T
2	7	2	1	2

The next step is to add up the numbers representing the vowels.

$$1 + 5 = 6$$

If the numbers go into double figures, keep reducing them until you get to one of the numbers used in numerology.

The Vowels in the name KAY BEST add up to 6. This constitutes my HEART NUMBER, which describes my deepest, dearest wishes.

Now, add up the numbers representing the consonants.

$$2 + 7 + 2 + 1 + 2 = 14$$

$$1 + 4 = 5$$

So, the CONSONANTS in the name KAY BEST add up to 5. This is my EXPRESSION NUMBER, describing the image I present. The final step is to add the numbers of the heart (vowels) number and the expression (consonants) number to discover the personality number.

ADDING THE VOWELS AND CONSONANT NUMBERS TOGETHER ADDS UP TO

6 + 5 = 11. THIS GIVES ME MY Personality Number. 11 is a unique number in numerology terms.

11 is related to psychic abilities, an iron determination. Successful. They excel in careers of teaching. Creative. Successful in their chosen field. This person dreams of making the world a better place! As a result of this, they are survivors. They have self-confidence and self-belief.

So, my personality number is 11. Reading the meaning of this number should give you some insight into what I am like as a person.

Add the numbers related to your business name. Reduce the resultant to a single digit.

If the business name is more than one word, repeat the process mentioned above to calculate others' numbers.

To receive the accurate business numerology name, you should reduce them and calculate it again.

What the Numbers Mean

This is the first masculine and prime number, so it is mighty. It is linked to beginnings. It is related to the sun and the sign of Leo.

Destiny Number– This is the number of the innovator and the pioneer. This person does not want to follow in other people's footsteps – they have their path to take and are natural leaders. They need to express themselves and follow their ambitions, regardless of what others think. At best, this makes them strong-minded, but at worst can make them stubborn and obstinate. They are kind and affectionate.

Personality Number – The person with this number has many of the traits of the person above, being genuinely original and very enterprising; they are also creative and will excel when they use these talents in some way. They do not like being limited or hampered in any way, especially if their destiny number is also one. Variety is the spice of life for them, and they soon become bogged down if they lead a predictable or routine existence.

Expression Number – This person is full of confidence and gives the impression of having life all sorted out. They appear to know precisely what they are doing and where they are heading, even if this is untrue. They are born trouble-shooters and often find themselves bailing out their many friends. They are trendy, partly because nothing seems to faze them, so they are a comforting presence.

Heart Number – This person sees themselves as innovative, independent, and pioneering. They have plenty of confidence and react badly to criticism and advice. In relationships, they find it challenging to show their vulnerable side and can consequently give the impression of being self-sufficient and not interested in others. They may prefer to be emotionally independent and not involved in a committed relationship.

This is the dual number which rules all opposites. It is associated with harmony, partnership, and diplomacy. It relates to the moon and the signs of cancer.

Destiny Number - This person must be in a relationship to feel complete. They function best as a team player rather than a solo agent and are affectionate and kind. They need harmony and will do their utmost to obtain it. We are sometimes putting them at a disadvantage in the process. This can lead to resentment when others take advantage of their easygoing nature. They are prone to being moody because they fear being openly aggressive.

Personality Number – Innate tact and diplomacy enable this person to smooth ruffled feathers and maintain harmony. They excel as mediators but are not skilled in sorting out their problems. They tend to withdraw from the fray, often interpreted as sulking. They are tremendously sensitive and do not like hurting their loved ones. It is tempting for them to hold on to situations, belongings, and relationships long after they should have moved on from them.

Expression Number - This person is a perfectionist. They expect the best from their partners and will soon tick them off if they fail to come up to scratch. They are also adamant and exacting when trying to maintain their high standards and become annoyed with themselves when they die. Nevertheless, they are endlessly supportive of partners. They excel at being a tireless background member of the team.

Heart Number - Emotional security and tranquillity are vitally important for this person, who is always thrown by unpleasant scenes and uncomfortable atmospheres. They can give the impression of being very self-assured, but underneath, it is a different story because they are so sensitive and vulnerable. They come into their own in close relationships because they are considerate and supportive.

This number relates to growth and fresh beginnings, whether physical or mental. It is associated with Jupiter and the sign of Sagittarius.

Destiny Number – Here is someone who excels at relationships, thanks to their cheerful, optimistic, and sunny disposition. They enjoy being part of a family but are not keen on feeling tied down by responsibility or being expected to carry out many tedious tasks. They are very loving but not the world's most faithful. They enjoy travel and challenges.

Personality Number – This person is a born optimist. Their glass is always half full, and better times are always around the corner. This positive attitude seems to work because they are successful and may have a burgeoning career that keeps them remarkably busy; they excel in any job that involves communicating with others and may become well-known in their field. They take care of their appearances but are not slavish about following fashion. They need plenty of variety; otherwise, they soon become bored and fed up.

Expression Number – This person is full of confidence and great fun to be around. It is difficult to ignore them because they are often the focus of attention and for all the right reasons. Here is an intuitive performer who knows exactly how to command an audience. They seem to be effortlessly confident and amusing. Nevertheless, they are uncomfortable when out of the limelight for long.

Heart Number – Good company and a born optimist, this person is deservedly famous. They are an excellent friend and partner because they are genuinely supportive of loved ones and want them to do well. They are generous with their congratulations when people succeed and full of encouragement when encountering setbacks. Although they have a marvellous sense of humour and seem to be the life and soul of the party, they may be hiding a vulnerable side that longs for acceptance and love.

Four is associated with stability and structure and is connected with Saturn and the sign of Capricorn.

Destiny Number - Here is someone with tremendous potential, ability, and sticking power. They will doggedly pursue an ambition until they have achieved it, sometimes to the cost of all other areas of their life. For instance, their relationships may suffer because of their emphasis on work and responsibility. Although they enjoy themselves, they can be slightly puritanical about having too much hedonistic fun. They often must overcome problems or limitations early in life. Their home life is significant to them.

Personality Number – This person must feel their life has a solid structure. Otherwise, they become anxious and full of trepidation. They tend to get bogged down in routine because they are wary of being spontaneous. They excel at being practical and organised and only feel comfortable when everything runs smoothly without room for problems or unexpected events. Yet, this is an ideal person to turn to in a crisis because they are level-headed.

Expression Number – This person is probably admired for their resourcefulness, practical abilities, and trustworthy character. They are not interested in basking in glory – they are much keener on doing what is expected. They are dutiful and responsible, which means others sometimes take them for granted. They are slightly conservative and mistrustful of people who do not conform to their standards and way of life.

Heart Number – This unassuming person does not like being in the limelight too often. They are much happier working busily behind the scenes, ensuring everything runs smoothly; they like to be considered dependable. Nature is essential to them, and they may harbour a secret wish to spend more time outdoors or even to have a job that brings them into contact with nature

This is a highly creative number; it is also associated with movement, Energy, and travel. It is linked to mercury and, therefore, with the signs of Gemini and Virgo.

Destiny Number. – Travel is very enjoyable for this person because they love to keep on the move. They like plenty of variety and can get bogged down when things become boring and predictable. Nevertheless, they must guard against a tendency to be a mental butterfly who knows a little about a lot but nothing in detail. They are a skilled communicator who is intelligent and quick-witted; ideally, they should put these qualities to good use in their career.

Personality Number. – Whenever life threatens to become too staid, routine, or dreary, this person will want to shake things up. Sometimes, they will introduce change simply for the sake of it, purely to make life more enjoyable. Their blood quickens at the thought of adventure, and they enjoy taking off on holiday. They like to keep one eye on the far horizon, so are always planning things. Sometimes, they may be so excited about their prospects that they neglect to enjoy the present.

Expression Number. – If you want to know the latest gossip, ask someone with fire as their expression number. They will soon fill you in on anything that you have missed! They have plenty of friends thanks to their intellect, fascinating conversation, and wide range of interests. They soon become restless if they feel stuck in a routine or have spent too long in one place.

Heart Number – A sense of dissatisfaction and disappointment lurks within this person. They are unhappily aware that life could be much more exciting if only they could hit on a secret formula. As a result, they may have a series of broken relationships because no partner ever comes up to scratch. Yet they do become more contented as they get older. Lively and with great company, this person makes friends easily but will soon sever ties with anyone not attuned to them mentally.

NUMBER 6

This number is associated with a love of the family and home and with service and responsibility; it relates to Venus and the signs of Taurus and Libra.

Destiny Number – Someone with this number has a strong nesting instinct. A happy home is essential if they feel fulfilled. They will channel a lot of Energy into looking after their loved ones, sometimes to the point where they neglect their needs. It is tempting for them to become slightly isolated from the rest of the world because they move into a tiny social circle composed of family and close friends. They are affectionate and kind but can sometimes be possessive and self-centred.

Personality Number – This is someone with an instinctive need to serve and help others. They will find many ways to express this, not least through their job, which is probably a vocation; self-employment comes easily because they are motivated and like to do things well. They take their responsibilities seriously and can sometimes become rather critical, with such high standards that no one can measure up to them. They are devoted to their family and to close friends.

Expression Number – This person sets a lot of stores by appearance. They want to give a good impression and like to be considered successful and worldly. They live life to the full and can be quite indulgent in the process. Stinting themselves is not in their nature! Unpleasant scenes are something they avoid, and they are careful to avoid trouble, too. They are quite easygoing but sometimes tend to be rather self-centred.

Heart Number – Happy relationships come quickly to this person, partly because they are eager to please. They want to be reliable, steadfast, and trustworthy, and they usually succeed because they go out of their way to help and support others. Their domestic and family life is significant to them, and they devote a lot of time to creating a restful and peaceful home in which they can feel safe.

NUMBER 7

This is a mystical number connected with spirituality, contemplation and philosophy. It has connections with Neptune and the sign of Pisces.

Destiny Number – This person has a strong intuition and should follow their gut instincts, which are usually reliable. They may even be psychic. At the very least, they are sensitive to the atmosphere and people's moods. They need to learn to protect themselves against negative people or situations. Creative and imaginative, they can sometimes allow their minds to run away with them, conjuring up demons. They are indeed born worriers. They need a lot of time to themselves.

Personality Number – Psychic abilities are more than likely for someone with this personality number. They are overly sensitive and attuned to the atmosphere around them. They enjoy paying close attention to their dreams since they can give vital insight into their lives and personalities. They are very musical, whether they perform or listen to it. Creativity comes naturally to them and should not be stifled. Even if they are not artistic, they should remember that creativity comes in many forms. At times, they need to retreat from the rest of the world.

Expression Number – It can take a while to get to know this person initially, their shy manner can make them seem remote and slightly unfriendly, but after you have penetrated their defences, you will find them charming, affectionate, and intelligent. They have an uncanny knack for putting their finger on the nub of things.

Heart Number – This person has a deep urge to merge with a force that is bigger than themselves. They may call this god or have another name for it, but it will be a guiding factor in their life. They may even choose to lead a contemplative or spiritual existence that separates them from others in some way. This can sometimes cause problems with their relationships, mainly if they have dedicated their life to a larger purpose. They are frequently misunderstood and may be considered rather strange by people who do not share their view of the world.

NUMBER 8

This number is linked with the material world. It is also connected with infinity because the infinity symbol resembles a figure eight lying on its side. It relates to the planet Saturn and the sign of Capricorn.

Destiny Number – This person is propelled through life by a strong force. They need to be respected by others and do not want to let themselves down by appearing to be a failure or second best. Appearances matter! Hard work holds no terrors for them, and they will embrace it wholeheartedly if it might lead to a better-paid job, an enhanced reputation, or an improvement in their status. Sometimes, their close relationships can suffer because of their powerful ambitions.

Personality Number – This is someone who knows what they want out of life and is determined to achieve it. They have something to prove, not only to themselves but also to the rest of the world. They are skilled organisers, excellent at making other people work at their best. Their high standards often lead to perfectionism, which leads to frustration when they fail to meet their expectations. Relationships are frequently casualties of this person's ambitions and need for material success; everything must take second place to their goals and dreams.

Expression Number – This person is probably a high-powered member of a business or organisation. They are an extremely hard worker and will put in hours of unpaid overtime if that is the only way to enhance their reputation or keep up with their workload. No one could accuse this person of slacking. If anything, they work too hard and have an overdeveloped sense of responsibility. They are not always as popular as they imagine, but they are exceedingly kind beneath what can sometimes be a self-important exterior.

Heart Number – Someone with this heart number yearns for success, if they do not receive the recognition that they believe they deserve, they can become bitter and angry at the way life has apparently cheated them. They enjoy a high standard of living partly because they see it as a reflection of their worldly success. In relationships, they are faithful and reliable but may struggle to show their vulnerable side. Nevertheless, they excel at being the person who organises everyone else.

NUMBER 9

A very spiritual number, nine is linked to vision and perfection. It relates to the planet Mars and with the sign of Aries and Scorpio.

Destiny Number – This person is skilled at devising brilliant ideas, although their initial enthusiasm may flag long before they put these ideas into practice, so someone else must do that for them. Nevertheless, they can achieve a great deal and are competitive despite their enthusiasm for life. They may have had a difficult childhood and have weathered many storms since then, yet they are never sad for long and will soon bounce back. They live in distinct chapters, perhaps severing links along the way.

Personality Number – You will find that this person is strongly humanitarian and concerned about working for other people in various ways. Their job may even relate to charitable works. They are visionary but dislike waiting for events to develop as they would like. As a result, they will be very impatient with anyone who is holding up progress. They enjoy travel.

Expression Number – This person makes a significant impact on everyone around them. They are bright and bubbly and terrific company. Luckily, they are so popular that their tendency to be painfully honest is usually forgiven. They can swing between being wholly selfless and utterly self-centred. In relationships, they need a partner who will appreciate their need for freedom and independence and who will not be jealous when they flirt with other people.

Heart Number – This person is curious about the world and has a very analytical attitude to life. They may dream of understanding exactly what makes others tick and can be ruthless in their desire to get to the bottom of mysterious situations. This does not go down too well with partners, who can get the impression that their every action is being analysed in minute detail. They are very compassionate and loving and enjoy expressing this side of their personality.

Eleven is the first of the two master numbers. It is related to psychic abilities and spiritual insights and has links with the planet Uranus and the sign of Aquarius.

Destiny Number – This person is a born leader, as you would expect, considering that eleven consists of two ones. They have an iron determination to achieve their objectives and are usually successful because they do not give up without a struggle. They have a tremendously powerful personality and can be very charismatic – a quality they should be careful not to exploit to get their way.

Personality Number – Here is an idealist who may have a message they want to broadcast to the rest of the world. If so, they will be helped by their ability to be articulate, charismatic, and powerful. They like to excel in any career that enables them to communicate with others so that they will do well in the media and teaching. However, they are unsuccessful in close relationships because their ambitions and reforming zeal often precede personal considerations.

Expression Number – Creativity flows through this person's veins, and they need to express it. Although they may not realise it, others are impressed by their artistry and the effortless way they can incorporate it into their lives. Usually, their creativity will make them successful in their chosen field, but occasionally, they may fritter away their energies on dreams that will never be realised. They have strong spiritual beliefs.

Heart Number – This person dreams of making the world a better place, and they will not be deterred from putting this vision into practice. As a result, they are survivors because they will fight tooth and nail to attain their objectives, even if they struggle or make plenty of sacrifices. They also have tremendous self-confidence and self-belief. However, this can come at a price because they may live on their nerves.

This is the second of the two master numbers and relates to perfection. It is linked to the planet Neptune and the sign of Pisces.

Destiny Number – This person has tremendous potential that is just waiting to be expressed. They should have no problems doing this since they are efficient and motivated. However, they can sometimes get caught up in internal struggles that take up much of their time and Energy. As a result, they may fail to accomplish what they set out to do, although they have more than enough ability. They may come into their own as they get older.

Personality Number – This person wants to do the absolute best they can, and they usually succeed because they have the necessary motivation and determination. However, they should avoid becoming complacent, which will slow them down at best or trip them up at worst. Their relationships are often slow at getting off the ground because they are hesitant to make an emotional commitment. Nevertheless, once the relationship has become established, they will want to make it a success and be faithful and loyal.

Expression Number – popular, clever, and charming. This person is easily noticed. They may give the impression of being slightly helpless, but they are competent and an excellent judge of character. Material success is likely for them, provided they can overcome a slight inferiority complex that tells them they are not worthy of it. They are idealistic and have a strong humanitarian streak.

Heart Number – This is someone with a secret desire for success and longs to get involved in humanitarian activities that will benefit the world. They are sufficiently motivated and clever to succeed but may become side-tracked and achieve less than they intended. They also tend to take the path of least resistance and to give up whenever the going gets tough. Their relationships bring out a curious mixture of a desire for power and a need for harmony.

ONCE YOU'VE CALCULATED ABOVE AND WRITTEN WHAT THE NUMBERS ADD UP TO – LOOK HERE AND SEE WHAT ELSE THOSE NUMBERS CAN SHOW YOU!

1 - The Leader This new number depicts the beginnings of your business, especially for start-ups and self-determination. It has a relation to solo as well as teamwork because it reflects independent Energy. One can be a very significant number for your business, irrespective of the field you belong to. Although it has rebellious Energy related to it, the Energy is positive as it brings a lot of determination and focus on your way.

However, it is necessary to maintain the balance to avoid the Energy of stubbornness. This Energy of determination can be used positively. Having 1 as your business name determines that you have the power and will to do it all alone and make it big in your business.

2 - The Partnership This number talks about your business partnerships and how you could apply the concept in your business. It reflects the Energy of alliances with other people and the traits and values of the block. Number 2 is more about duality and the coexistence of two in the business, balancing the good and evil between two, similar to light and dark. It also brings forth the importance of physical and spiritual pursuits of your business, masculine and feminine Energy, and more. It is all about balance and Energy. If managed correctly, the partnership can take your business positively with its unique offerings.

3 - The Creative Spirit In number 3, creative spirit and social connection are crucial in explaining the aesthetics. It brings out all aesthetics and creative pursuits that can benefit your business. However, creativity is connected to social gatherings and group activities rather than individual endeavours. 3 is dynamic Energy, and when it is treated the right way, it can positively impact your business. However, not having a balance can lead to projects getting delayed and, eventually, the shutting down of business.

4 - The Builder Number 4 depicts dependable and grounded association. However, only some people are okay with 4 as your business because they feel it brings stagnation. Number 4, when used correctly and balanced, can help reflect positive and trustworthy Energy for your business. Most business owners can rely on number 4, reflecting the Energy connected to Energy. It has a strong foundation on which companies can be built.

5 - The Change Maker For a business of Number 5, their freedom is fundamental. 5 is very encouraging for businesses as it allows everyone to take their step and move in a positive direction. Number 5 is similar to number 3 and a bit independent. They're all about change, adventure, and newness in travel. Many large organisations, such as Apple, have 5 as their business number. While 1 signifies new beginnings, 5 works in similar foundations to bring a change.

6 - The Nurturer Businesses with 6 as their number have a self-sacrificing Energy. It is often referred to as the Mother Number because of its role in the home and family sphere. It must be adequately balanced or bring about negative aspects such as over-protectiveness and anxiety. This, however, will prevent businesses from making decisions that can bring about their growth. Number 6, however, reflects a lot of compassionate Energy and can bring about healing and teaching. It has a warm, welcoming energy that can grow your business if harnessed correctly.

7 - The Truth Seeker Number 7 reflects scientific as well as practical knowledge. It has a combination of intuitive and spiritual experiences along with ancient wisdom. It works based on what your heart has to say and what your head thinks about it. Number 7 is closely related to research and analysis-based pursuit and brings forth many philosophies and introspection. As it is not a social number, it explains the possibilities of eccentricity and aloofness. However, this is one of those business numbers solely based on the foundation of seeking the true meaning of life.

8 - The Manifestor It may bring positive changes to your business but can also have specific negative impacts. Thus, the number 8 is not only a positive aspect but also an intense number. Number 8 can slip into the journey of prioritising money and power compared to all other numbers. Hence, number 8 is more of a corporate number. If balanced, it can manifest success and influence a great start to your business. Number 8 talks more about a smart business move and a good judge of character. Harness the Energy the right way!

9 - The Philanthropist Number 9 reflects the Energy of being at someone's service. It has very generous Energy that speaks of operation and creativity. Whatever the business, number 9 reflects the Energy to be at the service of others. Number 9 is connected more to social causes such as bringing justice, fundraising and giving it back. The number puts forth the needs of others above. However, it is necessary to realise that this might only sometimes be the right thing, so one needs to be careful.

Master Numbers 11, 22, and 33 belong to the Master Numbers, which are essential for your business name numerology.

11 - The Messenger 11 brings about the Energy of two numbers, the masculine Energy of 1 clubbed with connectedness and the feminine Energy of number 2.

11 is often seen as a message to the world to bring consciousness and enlightenment to a business that will push out boundaries. However, the Energy needs to be harnessed correctly to reach a goal. If the Energy is used correctly, the people might be given direction.

Businesses with 11 as their numerology might feel out of place and conflicted until they seek their own voice. Although they can get stuck, having the 'get-it-done' energy will only lead to its growth. If the Energy is applied accurately, it will help bring out the business's true potential.

33 - The Master Teacher The Master Teacher, or number 3, follows the combination of energies by numbers 3 and 6. It is more of a shaker or a mover that can make confident decisions. 33 represents the other two master numbers, 11 and 22. It is both creative and persuasive that leads to growth. This Energy, when harnessed the right way, can bring preachiness or frustration. What type of Energy is reflected ultimately depends on how people react to you.

Number 33 becomes crucial for businesses to create highly valuable coaching or teaching surrounding a spiritual change or evolution.

Business characteristics of the numbers from the vowels and the consonants added together

This is the business's personality. Bringing the numbers together from both the 7 and the 9. – $7+9=16$. $1+6=7$

If you want to go even deeper into checking what the numbers are saying, you could ask --

WHAT DOES YOUR BUSINESS ADDRESS NUMBER MEAN?

As you spend a lot of time in your homes, your house or business address number could also be incredibly significant for your future; it constantly influences your life. If more than one person is running the business, add both addresses. This can become quite complicated. There is an explanation below if you would like to do this.

To calculate your address number, do the same as you would for your name (your destiny number), so if you live in house number 192, you add it together as $1+9+2=12$, then $1+2=3$ so your numerology house number is 3.

If it is already a single-digit number, do not add it up. If you live in a house that has a letter, then take this into account as well.

Once you have found your house number, read the descriptions below to find out what your house means to you.

BUSINESS/HOME ADDRESS NUMBER MEANING

1 - This house provides a stimulating environment for creativity and enterprise. Determined intervals will undoubtedly find success here.

WATCH OUT –

Only make some people share. The occupants of this house need their own space and independence.

2 - This house would suit polite people who enjoy entertaining. A simple interior and furnishings create a peaceful atmosphere

WATCH OUT

Refrain from leaving clutter lying around. It could make other occupants irritable.

This is a cheerful home that will encourage celebration. It is favourable for large family gatherings or those who want to invite friends around. It will be comfortable and tidy.

3 - Common sense would be the keyword for people living in this house. Perfect harmony is when all members of this household do their bit.

WATCH OUT –

Do not try to be so severe; it will stifle the light-hearted Energy of the house.

4 – This home is a hive of activity. There is no routine, but there are loads of exciting things going on. Children will thrive here.

WATCH OUT –

This house works best when organised and clean with a tidy garden.

5 - Family ties are significant in-house number 5.

WATCH OUT –

Avoid being too quiet. This is different from what the house is meant for. If you need peace, a walk should bring you good.

6 - There needs to be a sense of belonging. Old family traditions will be respected here. There will be plenty of time devoted to children and pets. Caring and sharing is the key here.

WATCH OUT –

Pay attention to this house. Could you keep it clean and decorated? Keep family heirlooms.

7 - This home should be a haven of peace for those disillusioned with the world and what is happening around them. It would suit those who prefer their company and want the time and space to investigate the spiritual world.

WATCH OUT –

Avoid flashy colours; this home should be a place of quiet solitude.

8 - This is the place to be if you are positive and confident or for someone who holds a position of responsibility. Nothing but the best is good enough for this house.

WATCH OUT – untidy gardens, décor, and curtains will not do here, or it will hold you back.

9 - This home is excellent for those with tolerance, compassion, and a broad mind. This house is beautiful and encourages art lovers, waifs, and strays. People who live here will be honest and caring.

WATCH OUT –

Do not turn people away from this door; you will spoil the Energy of the place.

Universal Year Numbers

Once you have added all your business names and numbers already calculated together, you can go even deeper and ask what bringing the year into it means. For Calming Health and Beauty Fairs, add in the numbers listed above. If you want to look more into the last months of this year, you can do that by adding $2+0+2_3 =$ and the months of the year also add 11 for November and 12 for December. These are added to the example below. A 1 Universal Year is the brand new beginning of a 9-year cycle. This is a huge moment!

For next year, add 2024 with the - Vowels - +2+0+2+4 added onto it.

For next year, adding 2024 with the - The consonants - + 2+0+2+4 added

The numbers that bring in the business's personality and again adding 2+0+2+4 will give an insight into what 2024 has in store for the company.

Then, use the numbers below to add to the chart you have already started to build.

How to Calculate the Universal Year Number

Start by writing down the digits that make up the current year

(Just the Year – we do not need the day or month.)

Now, add each single number together.

If you reach a number that is ten or more, keep adding.

NOTE: If your result is a Master Number (11 or 22), do not reduce further.

Universal Year Numbers Meanings. IN SHORT

Universal Year in numerology describes the general themes and influences in the current year.

Universal Year 1

Transitioning from the Energy of a 9 Universal Year to the Energy of one can take a little time. The Energy of the 1 is about independence, initiation, achievement, and creativity. Numerology brings a new start, a time of initiation, breaking new ground and collectively planting the seeds we want to see grow in the next nine-year cycle and beyond.

The Energy of the number 1 needs to move! Try not to let yourself be held back by anything that happened in the last year. The moment has arrived to move on. Yet, it's vital to be selective about which seeds you sow. This is a great time to strengthen your sense of independence. The highest use of the number 1 comes when you can use its spirit and creativity for the collective good rather than personal gain.... this could be where challenge shows up!

You may feel pulled from one project/idea/creative activity to the next, as the next shiny new thing grabs your attention... but try NOT to give in to the urge to abandon what you're in the middle!

Universal Year 2

A 2 Universal Year is the second stage of a 9-year cycle. It still holds an emergent quality, yet the focus has moved beyond the individual. The Energy of the number 2 is about building alliances and extending your trust to others. Through collaboration and partnership, good things will come. So, it's time to stretch out your hand and connect to the world!

This Year cycle is all about Teamwork, cooperation, and mutual happiness. Be prepared to enjoy the experience of building connections with others and learning to accept what they have to give.– allow yourself to be cared for, as well as to care. It's the time to break out from the self-focus of the last year and look to a new cycle of growth of a slightly different kind.

Universal Year 3

A 3 Universal Year holds a playful, creative and expressive energy. It's one year of the 9-year cycle that many people look forward to! It's said to be a shift into a social year because new friendships can arise, and old ones can be renewed. The number 3 is childlike and pleasure.

Seeking yet can be scattered and lacking in discipline at times. This is an excellent year cycle to get creative and figure out what makes you smile!

This Universal Year cycle is all about connection. Yet, whilst the 2 Year was finding that common ground and creating equilibrium, the number 3 is about authenticity.

You'll be more conversational and expressive this year, so ensure you share your truth. A shadow of this number is people-pleasing and performing for a crowd. So make sure you're staying in this trap. Use the enthusiastic qualities of the year Number 3 to create new relationships. New people you meet this year could become critical to you in the future, so be brave. Reach out. And enjoy the connections you make.

This is one of those numbers where you may not reach an intense level, but that's not the point. It will come later, in months and years to come. For now, let the joy of your

This is a great year to look at where you're supporting your expression of self... And where your Energy of expression is being quashed.

Your creativity will likely be ignited under this numerological frequency. Expect a new era in collective imagination!

A, focus and sticking power can be challenging during a 3 Year. Strategy, discipline, and accountability are all great ways to remedy this and make the most of this cycle.

Authentic self-expression can be hard to find this year, which seems counterintuitive, yet many people will only skim the surface. Because of this, there's excellent healing potential.

Heightened sensitivity to judgment and criticism may also manifest. Yet, this is always the flip side of increasing self-awareness and expressing yourself. Learning and accepting this could be part of the life path during this year.

Universal Year 4

A 4 Universal Year holds a solid, organised and hardworking energy. It's one part of the 9-year cycle that many consider the year to knuckle down and get your hands dirty! It's said to be a year of significant progress because big material shifts can come into being.

This is an excellent year cycle to think carefully about the kind of life you want to be living and the practical steps you'll need to take to make it a reality!

This Year cycle is all about working through things step-by-step. Then, this one is about grounding that creativity into something of tangible value.

This is no time to cut corners!

You'll find fulfilment this year if you work methodically. Follow the rules. It can be gratifying.

Be realistic.

You can build on what you create. The number 4 loves you're working with your nose to the grindstone this year; then you need to include the point. As well as the materiality of life,

A 4-year is a powerful time to listen to that inner voice calling to you, asking deep questions. It's not a sensitive, psychic, intuitive energy like the number 2. This is more about deep roots... and the healing that can come with ancestral work.

Where do you come from?
Who were your ancestors?
What did those people believe?
What could they teach you?
How can you connect to them?
This number that loves routine,

Changing direction mid-course may be challenging, and leaping at opportunities may take time to come naturally to you this year.

This cycle requires balance; whilst the Universal energies favour a hardworking approach, it's important to lighten up and let yourself have a little fun, even if this means scheduling it in!

Opinions and ideas may get a little rigid during this year. It's not a time of free thought or innovation, so beware of stick-in-the-mud attitudes.

Universal Year 5

The number 5 responds well to change – people with this number in their numerology charts tend to seek several options.

This Year cycle is all about change.

It doesn't mean all that hard work you put in last year when you were putting down roots and building up structure was in vain. The more rooted you are, the easier it will be to embrace whatever life throws you this year.

Unexpected things could be asked of you this year, from career changes to overseas travel to social upheaval.

This year is all about evolution and adventure. If you take one step towards it, the Universe will also take a step forward.

The 5 knows that the Universe has your back.

So go for it. Look for what you want. Be creative in your approaches – don't just sit there waiting to receive it all into your lap. Seek it out. It's ALL there waiting to be found.

The urge for sensation will likely be felt strongly this year by everyone.

The body holds expressions of 5 throughout. From our 5 senses to the 5 fingers on each hand, toes on each foot, and limbs of the body (2 arms, 2 legs, plus the head).

Perhaps the number 5 can hold an energy of overindulgence. Under its influence, we want to sense so much more than at other times. Cue overeating, drinking, drugs, sex, etc.... So watch impulses don't lead you into dangerous territory this year.

It is all too easy to flit from place to place, project to project, idea to idea under this cycle's Energy.

Restlessness means that sticking power will likely be in very short supply. So, trying just a little bit harder to implement a strategy, a routine, or a game plan for what you want to achieve with the year is a must. Everything is subject to change (could it be any other way with this universal Energy ruling the roost?!) But make an effort. You'll be glad you did by the end of it.

Life can hold a lot of enjoyment under this cycle.

More relationships tend to break apart during this year cycle. It's due, in part, to the innate restlessness that this number holds, yet also because it's serving as a kind of course corrector for the rest of the 9-year cycle. Yet if you're feeling itchy feet, spend plenty of time in introspection to determine what to do. Unnecessary self-sabotage is a real danger.

Universal Year 6

A 6 Universal Year often comes as a warm, welcome embrace after the changeable, free-spirited Energy of the previous Year. The Energy it holds is about safety, protection, and the sanctuary of home and often comes into the collective focus during the 6 Years.

This Year cycle asks us to spend time with the people we care for.

Family brings different things to mind for different people.

For some, it's belonging and security. Yet, it's the opposite for others, and they can't bear to be in the same room. Whatever your experience, expect this Universal energy to bring it all up into the light.

You may be called into healing family rifts. OR moving on once and for all and seeking out 'soul family' elsewhere.

Whatever the family-shaped message this 6-year cycle brings you, take it in. Listen. Give time and attention to the issues in your life. This number seeks balance in these areas and will bring them if you work at it.

If there's ever a time to express care for others actively, it's now!

The numerology of this 6 Year has unconditional love at its core. This means there's no deserving, no earning or working for love and affection.

Practice what it's like to give freely. Compliments. Practical help. Genuine interest

This year, you can expect people to open up and be more generous, but it may take a little practice. So pave the way.

Creativity is another feature of the number 6.

Maintaining this loving and giving Energy (especially if it manifests in practical acts) all year (!) could be exhausting.

As is receiving support from other people., the Energy of the 6 tends to verge on that of the martyr. You may say yes to too much and then find it difficult to let go when it all becomes overwhelming... So control issues could flare.

Universal Year 7

A 7 Universal Year is often little understood by most people. At odds with our relentless pace of modern life, the Energy of the number 7 isn't about achieving more. Instead, it can feel slow (or unmoving), reflective and highly spiritual.

This Year cycle asks us to stop striving and slow down. This number holds a restful energy, yet even though all appears calm from the outside, a lot can be happening under the surface.

Deep healing. Working out problems. Don't make it harder on yourself by whizzing around a hundred miles an hour!

This is a year when everyone will be thinking a little more deeply. The Universal energy of this cycle favours self-inquiry and reflective pondering. Remember – you have all that you need inside of you!

The Energy of the 7 wants you to down tools and trust that inner navigation system. There's no better time to begin than when the seven is connected. So channel it.

Universal Year 8

For many folks, a 8 Universal Year is the stuff of legends! As the number most often associated with wealth, power and influence, the 8 is usually at the top of everyone's list.

This year holds an energy that's ambitious, capable and strong. But it can also bring huge challenges. Yet, it's important to realise that this number only ever brings growth opportunities. As such, an 8 Universal year can be a time of immense personal transformation if you embrace it with both hands! This Year cycle is about setting high sights and reaching for the stars!

If the last year was all about going within and seeking answers, this year is when we get to act on what was discovered. But this number won't let any of us play small! This is an ideal year to harness the numerology fully and go for broke.

Don't just plan for what's possible. Plan for what you most want. Like leaping off a cliff and praying you'll grow wings on the way down, the Energy of the eight might not reveal every step of the path ahead. It wants you to trust. Take a risk. And believe in yourself.

So aim just a little bigger than is comfortable this year. By the time it's out, that thing that felt like a giant stretch will have become your new normal! The number 8 isn't a cross-your-fingers-and-hope-for-the-best kind of numerology. It manages to scoop up a big lot of luck out of life. But its main tool of triumph is strategy. Strategy is your best friend during this Universal Year. So, figure out how you will get there beyond just knowing what you want. What steps will you take? Who's involved? When are your deadlines? Plan, plan down to the last detail, and the number 8 will ensure you thrive this year!

Any attempt to cut corners, tell a little white lie, or pull the wool over somebody's eyes inevitably falls flat.
You get caught out.
Something breaks.
And it all comes tumbling down.

So, the lesson here? Don't cut corners this year. Sure, take a risk or two (or three), but be honest, aligned, and even in your tiny day-to-day tasks, stay within your integrity.

One characteristic of the year is balance.

Just as Figure 8 flows in and out infinitely, the Energy of this Year will rise and fall. This means that when it falls.... it WILL rise again! Our work during this cycle is to find a balance and be okay with the ups and downs, trusting that we'll find our feet and path back to the top again.

Let yourself NOT win every time. It is humbling to offer other people the chance to rise to the top, and it will help you preserve your Energy for non-negotiable things!

As such a prosperous number seems to be the pure expression of wealth sometimes, it's vital not to become selfish or self-centred.

There truly is enough to go around. So if you have a big success, learn how to share it. Financially or otherwise.

One of the biggest lessons that the 8-year cycle has to teach is how to distribute wealth fairly. How to use power for the good of others, and how to choose to uplift those around us.

This number can offer challenges around controlling money and power dynamics when expressed as an 8-year.

Lording power over others, OR on the opposite end of the spectrum, crashing into a victim mentality and giving all your power away, is also dangerous.

For this reason, 8 Years always holds the potential for deep healing in these areas.

Like the 4 Universal Year cycle, collectively, this cycle requires balance; we all become workaholics. So, whilst the Universal energies favour a hardworking approach, it's important to lighten up and let yourself have a little fun, even if this means scheduling it in.

Universal Year 9

A 9 Universal Year is unlike any other. Coming at the end of the 9-year cycle brings resolution, accomplishment, and fulfilment. The Energy of the number 9 is selfless and is often very outward-focused on community and the greater good. It is creative and unconcerned with money or material gain.

This is also a really important year to consider your cycles of completion. What have you achieved? And what is it time to let go of?

Anything released this year – people, habits, projects, work commitments, trauma and emotional dependencies – will truly be left in the past. This year is the gateway to a new life. As the end of such a large numerological cycle, this 9-year cycle asks us to wrap up projects, finish tasks, and tie up all those loose ends before a new beginning beckons. It's important to realise that universal energies are doing this anyway. So, participate to make the best use of this year and the direction it's moving the collective in.

Choose to bring things to a close in your life, especially if you sense that they no longer serve your best interests. This may be difficult, especially if you've become dependent on people, beliefs, behaviours, habits, or anything else you use as a crutch. But letting go now, in this final year of the cycle, will open up new opportunities for you.

It's important NOT to get preoccupied with the things that aren't working for you in order to let them go.

What have you achieved over the past nine years?

What did you create, manifest, and bring into being?

Spend time looking back at old photos, reading old journals and giving yourself a perspective on how far you've come all this time. Feel proud – this Energy can sometimes be selfless, so it's very easy when the nine appear so selfless that you can't see your own successes.

Yet this is also a year of celebration! You make it – we all made it!

The Energy of release and healing held within this year can dig deep if you choose to use it.

Not only the number which closes off the cycle, 9 contains every other number that has come before it ($1 + 2 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 + 8 + 9 = 45$, and $4 + 5 = 9$). So symbolically, the number nine is the container for all worldly experiences, past, present and future. As such, it is related to karma – energetic programming carried from one lifetime to the next.

Graduating from the power and influence offered by single-digit 8, the nine is often regarded as the number of humanitarians by numerologists...Making this an ideal year to align your efforts with the greater good.

What can you do that will serve more people than you are currently?

What can you do to make this world a better place – long term, not just for today?

With the environmental crisis now globally recognised as such, what can YOU do to help?

Or is social justice your thing?

Or can you volunteer with a local charity to stay more grassroots?

Make this 9 Year the Year you chose to be part of the solution.

You must look after number 1 this year!

As with the number 6, you can't fill from an empty cup, and this year will likely ask you to give, give, give.

So ensure you regularly check in with yourself, how you feel, and what you need.

Depending on your numerology, the huge retreat of Energy (and, with it, things from your life) may be challenging. If the 9 shows up in your numerology chart (as the Life Path, Destiny Number or Soul Urge Number?), then difficulty letting go may be a natural expression. For others, clearing out and releasing may be exactly what you love!

The selfless and compassionate giving that often accompanies this Energy needs replenishing somehow. One HUGE cycle is closing, and another is beginning. So much change is occurring below the surface.

Exhaustion is a danger.

Idealism is also a shadow trait of the number 9. Be aware of these tendencies in yourself and others this year. Combat them. If left unchecked, this can tumble to the other extreme and hopelessness and despair are possible.

BRINGING IT ALL TOGETHER. (In Short)

THE REPORT FOR CALMING HEALTH AND BEAUTY FAIRS BREAKS DOWN TO THE FOLLOWING.

Heart Number 7 - Your deepest desires for your business ===7

Heart Number. – Happy relationships come easily to this person, partly because they are eager to please. They want to be reliable, steadfast, and trustworthy, and they usually succeed because they go out of their way to help and support others. Their domestic and family life is extremely important to them, and they devote much time to creating a peaceful home where they can feel safe.

People with Heart Number 7 accumulate knowledge. They don't get open with everyone easily. They take time to share their feelings.

Expression Number 9 – The Image you want to present to the world.

Expression Number. – This person makes a big impact on everyone around them. They are bright and bubbly and terrific company. Luckily, they are so popular that their tendency to be painfully honest is usually forgiven. They can swing between being completely selfless and utterly self-centred. In relationships at work and home, they need a partner who will appreciate their need for freedom and independence,

This is the business's personality. Bringing the numbers together from both, so the 7 and the 9. – $7+9=16$. $1+6=7$

Number 7 reflects scientific as well as practical knowledge. It has a combination of intuitive and spiritual experiences along with ancient wisdom. It works based on what your heart has to say and what your heart thinks about it. Number 7 is closely related to research and analysis-based pursuit and brings forth many philosophies and introspection. As it is not a social number, it explains the possibilities of eccentricity and aloofness. However, this is one of those business numbers solely based on the foundation of seeking the true meaning of life.

DECEMBER 2023 – CALMING HEALTH AND BEAUTY FAIRS Universal Year 6

So, the 6 of 2024 without each month added is also at a 6, so December is all about turning things around and beginning to move forward and look to 2024!

A 6 Universal Year often comes as a warm, welcome embrace after the changeable, free-spirited Energy of the previous Year. The Energy it holds is about safety, protection, and the sanctuary of home and often comes into the collective focus during the 6 Years.

This month and Year cycle asks us to spend time with the people we care for.

Family brings different things to mind for different people. For some, it's belonging and security. Yet, it's the opposite for others; they can't bear to be in the same room. Whatever your experience, expect this Universal energy to bring it all up into the light. Whatever the family-shaped message this 6-year cycle brings you, take it in. Listen. Give time and attention to the issues in your life. This number seeks balance in these areas and will bring them if you work at it.

If there's ever a time to express care for others actively, it's now!

The numerology of this 6 Year has unconditional love at its core. This means there's no deserving, no earning or working for love and affection.

Practice what it's like to give freely.

Complements. Practical help. Genuine interest

This year, you can expect people to open up and be more generous, but it may take a little practice. So, pave the way. Creativity is another feature of the number 6. Maintaining this loving and giving Energy (especially if it manifests in practical acts) all year (!) could be exhausting. As is receiving support from other people., the Energy of the 6 tends to verge on that of the martyr. You may say yes to too much and then find it difficult to let go when it all becomes overwhelming... So, control issues could flare. So, the overall meaning of the 6 for December and next year means the wheels are turning to prepare for the new year. We can do it month by month by adding the 1 for January 2 for February, etc. or as mentioned earlier, add up each letter per the directions above.

A full numerology chart can easily take a day, maybe more, for in-depth reports to be made.
